Minutes: Minutes of the January meeting were accepted as written.

Treasurer's Report:

Beginning Balance February 1, 2023: $15,151.21

Payment: $106.40 check to Cory Jacobson for Playground event (photocopies and shipping).

Ending Balance March 31, 2023: $15,044.81

Officer/Committee Reports:

Upcoming MROO Conference dates will be September 20-22, 2024.

Next Leadership zoom meeting will be April 20, 2024. It is requested that delegates for this year's convention attend the zoom meeting. This would mean choosing delegates this coming month.

The playground was successfully sent to its next location.

Next month, Tim Dixon will be hosting the chapter meeting.

Education Committee: Proctored a test for Matt Friedli, who passed his written exam!
Congratulations!

Discussion for placing an advertisement with the Piano Arts Competition: Milwaukee is hosting this year, the 25th anniversary event. Ads are due April 8. Quarter-page ads are $190.

Dave Hulbert motioned & Matt Friedli seconded to put in a quarter-page ad for the Piano Arts Competition. Motion carried.

Industry News: A ProFelt replacement, “Felt Restore” is being sold by Howard Industries.

Old/Unfinished Business:

3-key grand action model: Brandon will research what to get and where.

Playground event was a success! There was a lot of good feedback. Thanks to all the helpful hands, facilitators, and hosts! Please send your feedback to the home office.

Dave Hulbert motioned & Tom Dowell seconded to host the Playground event again next year in February or March. Motion carried.

New Business:

(none)

Meeting Adjourned: 8:01 PM (Mike Spalding motioned, Dave Hulbert seconded.)

Technical: Cory Jacobson introduced the technical activity for the evening: to inspect a few of the university’s pianos, and compare notes on their condition and value. Thank you for setting this up for us, Cory!

Respectfully Submitted,
Kayla Huhn
